

AClimateWorld agro-climate advisory system

Description

An automated digital agro-climatic advisory system, that reduces climate variability risk by integrating seasonal forecasts and crop modelling to provide recommendations on best-bet planting dates and varieties to farmers and extension agents, operationalized through an on-line platform that runs climate and crop models and a chatbot

Innovation Contributors

Contributor	Description
Julian Ramire	Email: J.R.Villegas@cgiar.org
Available in	Ethiopia, Colombia.

Institutions

