Bundled private sector led service provision in agriculture

Description

Bundled private sector led service provision in agriculture is a model that entails aggregating demand and offering farm services such as ploughing, seed access, ploughing and multiple crop threshing and associated extension to a farming community by a private sector. A one stop platform for agroinput support, these services are key avenues to unlock adoption of proven technologies

Innovation Contributors

Contributor	Description
Jean Claude Rubyogo	Email: J.C.Rubyogo@cgiar.org

Available in	Tanzania.

Institutions