Virtual agronomist

Description

Virtual agronomist is a hyper-local, tailored and dynamic nutrient management recommendation tool used by extension workers to inform smallholder farmers' best practices in nutrient management decision-making for improving crop productivity, profitability and resource use efficiency

Innovation Contributors

Contributor	Description
Kazuki Saito	Email: K.Saito@cgiar.org

Available in	Tous les Pays.